

*There's no denying the fact that your workforce is changing.
Do you know how to adapt to the change?*

Today's leaders need to understand the diversity of the modern day workforce. There needs to be a clear understanding of the differences in work habits, values, and motivation, between workers of different age, gender, cultural, and ethnic groups. Without this understanding, there is little hope of maximizing your human capital.

This class can be presented in a half day. It's appropriate for any audience. Subjects include:

- ❑ Understanding generations X, Y, Baby Boomers, and the Great Generation
- ❑ Understanding how employees in each of these groups are motivated
- ❑ Understanding diversity in the workplace

By the end of this workshop you will:

1. Understand the generational differences within your team.
2. Adjust your leadership style to best motivate and communicate with all generations
3. Be able to better understand the ethnic and cultural differences within your workforce and use the knowledge to build a stronger team.
4. Lead with confidence

If you've ever said, "Why can I get my people to perform?" this workshop is for you.
